19th of November 1987

Several months ago, a handful of Iraqi Mirage F1EQ pilots went to France to train on the Mirage 2000. Yesterday, the two first qualified Iraqi pilots took off from France with the two first available Iraqi Mirages 2000. After a stop at Basra, they are flying to Shiraz today. You are the wingman of this patrol, the youngest of the initial group but not the less gifted.
