

Mission 2, Res non verba

60mn

3rd of June 1992

The UAE's fears were well founded. The airfield of Abu Musa is working and can host fighter jets and cargo planes. It's a serious threat. Moreover, the west harbor has been upgraded and there is no doubt cargo ships and warships can now moor there. Certain of its superiority, Iran is ready to put pressure on UAE. The aggressive behavior of the MiG-29 yesterday is proof of this. The time for words is over, UAE must act and the priority is to put the airfield out of service.

Briefing

The aim is to damage this airstrip (50m x 3 km). Your plane is loaded with 12 BAP-100s. Two other Mirage 2000s are in CAP configuration to protect you.

Thanks to the relations between the UAEAF and the "Armée de l'Air" (French Air Force) you have studied in detail the Ouadi Doum airstrike where French Jaguars of the "11ème Escadre" attacked in 1986 the runway of the Libyan airbase mainly with BAP-100s.

In this attack, the planes carried out only one pass about 15 degrees from the runway centerline, spaced enough of each other to maximize damage. Of course you have to adapt this tactic because there were 11 Jaguars and today you are ... just one.

So, it's up to you to choose the appropriate angle and bomb setting.

This is a cold start.

To complete this mission you will need to make the Abu Musa runway unusable, then land at Al Dhafra Air Base and park your plane to the assigned location (70).

Advice

- Three BAP-100s in the runway are needed to consider it unusable.
- Read the Chuck's guide (see Introduction doc) if you need to review the BAP-100 or the CCIP mode.

References

As seen in the previous mission, IRIAF really has C-130 Hercules purchased during the Shah's period. About 30 of them are still flying nowadays.

"Res non verba" was the motto of the "11ème Escadre" and means "Deeds not words".
