MISSION 6 - ATTACK AT SUNSET

SITUATION:

The defending group is also supplied by air via the Carpiquet airfield. There may also be military transport and attack helicopters supporting the land forces. In order to weaken the enemy supply flow, it was decided to damage the airfield infrastructure and grounded aircraft. The attack on the airfield is carried out by the forces of the entire squadron. The long-range SAM suppression was to be carried out by a pair of MiG-27K fighter-bombers (call sign 264). Pair 109-110 will perform additional reconnaissance and short-range SAM suppression in the target area 5 minutes before the main force approaches. The attack will be made from two directions. Combat formation on the route - a column of pairs. The leading group - three pairs, group leader 111. Then the second group - group leader 103. Approach the target at zero altitude, in the area of Soliers the first group will break to the left to attack from the south side (leader 111). 5 km from the target, climb to 600 m for the attack. The attack is to be carried out simultaneously by all helicopters with missiles in one go. Retreat by right turn and rendezvous at WP4 (Fleury-sur-Orne). The SAR role will be given to a pair of Mi-8 (callsign 121).

Your place in the battle formation is in the second group, the third pair (103/104, 105/106, 107/108).

Pass through the front line to be done at zero altitude, the artillery attack of the front line will distract the enemy.

You cannot control your wingman in this mission.
